

Merodis executes the trade sale of Calxx Laboratories to MD Pharma.

February 12th 2016, Brussels, Belgium

Merodis, a corporate finance consulting firm, successfully executed the sale of Calxx Laboratories to MD Pharma. Drawing on its large network of contacts within the consumer healthcare industry, Merodis succeeded to complete the transaction within the very short time-frame required by the seller.

Calxx Laboratories (<http://calxplus.com/>) develops and commercializes OTC/OTX products in the fields of calcium supplements with attractive gallerinics. These products are exclusively sold through pharmacies in Belgium under the brand CalxPlus. MD Pharma, a company recently incorporated by serial entrepreneur and pharmacist Mario Debel, is taking over Calxx Laboratories with the ambition to further increase the penetration of CalxPlus in Belgium and developing its potential internationally.
