

Arnaud Goossens joins Merodis as Partner

October 18th 2016, Brussels, Belgium

Merodis, an independent corporate finance advisory firm, is pleased to announce that Arnaud Goossens* will be joining as Partner. Arnaud has been advising listed and non-listed corporates on M&A, fund raising, IR strategy and equity research since 2013 within a consulting partnership.

Arnaud has close to 20 years of equity markets experience covering Belgian equities and advising institutional investors worldwide. Arnaud has worked for top investment banks in London, Paris and Brussels including SBC Warburg, ABN AMRO, ING and Exane BNP Paribas. His career was focused on Belgian equity research, with top rankings in investor survey, and included senior management roles at ING as Head of Equity Markets in Belgium and at Exane as Partner and Head of Benelux.

During his career, Arnaud was involved in several Belgian IPOs and secondary offerings, writing equity research and pitching the investment cases to investors. Arnaud also teaches Equity Valuation at the University of Lille II and at ICHEC Brussels Management School.

Arnaud will contribute his extensive experience in financial analysis, equity valuation, investment pitching and dealmaking as well as his network among corporates and investors. He will also launch a new service within Merodis: Equity Research and Financial Dashboards/Peer Benchmarking for listed and non-listed corporates.
